BUYING FLURRY ON CORN MARKET
Chicago, Nov. 26.—Semi-official quotations as to whether short selling of corn might not be as effectively prevented as similar operations in cotton led to a buying flurry on the part of numerous speculators in the corn market today. Opening quotations, which ranged from 12.25 to 12.50, were followed by a bulge all around and then a descent to well below yesterday's finish.
One followed the action of corn. Provisions were dull and irregular.
Prices closed steady, 24.95 to 25.00 net higher, with December 12.25 and January 12.26 to 12.27.
